

Comparative Study Proposal

1. Liberty Leading the People, by Eugene Delacroix, a French painter in 1830

a.

2. Wassilij Jakowlew's Portrait of Georgy Zhukov (1946)

a.

3. American Progress (1872) by John Gast

a.

What I want to compare between these three pieces of art is the way that the artists use specific techniques in order to inspire nationalism in their audiences. Also, I would like to compare the different purposes and contexts of all the paintings, and how similar they are. Finally, I would like to discuss how effective each of the techniques used in the paintings were and compare the goal of each painting.