Two ceramic figurines are standing in a forest setting. The male figurine on the left is wearing a black hat, a white shirt, a red vest, and dark pants. The female figurine on the right is wearing a red and white headscarf, a white lace collar, a black long-sleeved top, and a red skirt. Both figurines have large, expressive eyes and red lips. They are surrounded by dry leaves and twigs on the ground, with green foliage in the background.
