

AP-IB Photo Scavenger Hunt

Rules:

1. See Canvas for Deadline.
2. All images must be shot on campus
3. All images must be new ones shot for this specific shoot. You cannot re-use old images here (unless they are composited in with a new image).
4. You must work as a team (if someone really wants to fly solo – ok)
5. Images must be edited for quality
6. Images can have some post-production manipulations applied to them
7. You may bring props from home for your photos
8. No references to drugs, alcohol, or smoking
9. No sexual content
10. Do not interrupt classes (if you want to shoot a picture with a teacher, or use a student in a class, consult with the teacher beforehand)
11. No climbing on buildings or jumping off high heights or doing anything dangerous to yourself, others, or property.

How you will be judged:

Creativity/Impact

Quality

Composition

Here is the list of what you need to photograph – Number 30 is required (not required to enter as your competition pieces):

1. a photo displaying madness
2. a photo with some/all of your members of your group and a black panther (the NPHS kind, not the civil rights group)
3. a photo of at least two “opposite” textures
4. a photo that shows “spastic” or “spaz”
5. a photo displaying ecstatic joy
6. a photo showing an interesting background merger with the central subject
7. a photo demonstrating gluttony
8. an interesting use of hands and lockers
9. a photo with an interesting use of reflection or refraction
10. a photo that makes interesting use of a staircase(s)
11. a photo with a toy or stuffed animal(s) or toy(s) in strange circumstance
12. an object in a place you normally would not find that object
13. a silhouette of someone or something
14. a photo that truly reveals the personality of that person
15. an interesting use of cell phone(s)
16. A photo that conveys a great feeling of tension
17. A photo that includes a seagull or other bird on campus
18. A photo that expresses ecstatic freedom
19. A photo that expresses oppressive confinement
20. A photo that interestingly shows a door knob or door handle
21. A creepy photo
22. A photo of all or most of your group with a black panther (school mascot – not the Black Panther party)
23. An interesting photo with a recycle bin in it
24. A photo that makes a very creative use of light
25. Create a meme with an image shot on campus
26. A photo with a creative composition using a tree (you cannot climb up a tree for this)
27. A photo with a creative composition using books
28. A photo that shows animosity/conflict between the film and digital photo worlds of photography
29. A photo that shows the harmony between the film and digital photo worlds
30. A photo using one or more of the gold flamingos (this one is required)

You must complete 15. You will select your best 3-5 for competition. On each image, please put a text layer describing the topic. For example: "Scary" or "Ecstatic Joy".

Choose one person from you group to upload the images to Canvas. Put all 15 in an album labeled "scavenger hunt." Your top 3-5 will be placed on a flash drive I will provide. Please put these images in a folder labeled with all names in the group).